

Education Director/Prayer Leader

What We Seek: An innovative, warm and musical Jewish Professional (with a rabbinic, cantorial, or other graduate level Jewish background) with a passion for lifelong learning and outreach. We seek a creative person who brings a vision with the skills to implement it – one to infuse our Jewish education programs, Hebrew studies, art and Jewish music for children and adults.

This Jewish Professional must be a person with a welcoming spirit who will collaborate with our Rabbi and community to provide programs in the following areas:

- Director of our Shul School and teen program. There are approximately 50 students in our Shul School this year, and 20 active teens.
- Work with the Rabbi to provide and coordinate liturgical music (vocal and instrumental) during services.
- Adult education programs
- Outreach to the unaffiliated in our region

Who We Are: Temple Emek Shalom (TES) is an unaffiliated, 200 plus member, diverse congregation. It is comprised of individuals and families of varied denominational (our Rabbi is Reconstructionist-trained), educational and professional backgrounds, interfaith households, retirees, spiritual seekers, and college students.

Where We Live: TES is located in Ashland, Oregon, considered a year-round cultural paradise in the heart of the Rogue River Valley. It is a place of incomparable natural beauty, where hiking trails and outdoor activities abound, as well as being home to the world-renowned Oregon Shakespeare Festival, the Britt Music Festival, Southern Oregon University and the Ashland Independent Film Festival. Ashland offers 365 days of theatre, in addition to year round enjoyment of galleries, museums, film, music and shopping. See more at: www.ashlandchamber.com

This is a three-quarter-time position with a competitive salary and benefits. Together with your resume, we will appreciate any materials that highlight your relevant skills.
