Are You Ready to Lead?

Certificate in Jewish Leadership

Presented by Spertus Institute in partnership with Northwestern University, the Certificate in Jewish Leadership is dedicated to enhancing the professional abilities of Jewish leaders.

Participants learn to strengthen their own leadership styles, collaborate within and across organizations, manage change, and articulate and achieve goals.

The program is presented through a combination of online content and onsite seminars at the Spertus Institute campus in Chicago. Taught by senior Northwestern University and Spertus Institute faculty, it includes professional coaching with established community leaders.

The program cost of $2,500 includes Leadership Assessment and Coach Match. Does not include travel or accommodations. Scholarships may be available for employees of Jewish organizations.

Modules

- Models of Jewish Leadership
- Communications for Leaders
- Collaboration and Power Sharing
- Leading People Through Change

Cohorts beginning in Spring and Fall 2021.

The Certificate in Jewish Leadership is a selective admissions program. Applicants should have 5 years of professional or volunteer experience and a strong commitment to developing their professional potential.
